

Economic Sectors Providing the Most Wages in the Lincoln Labor Market Area Economy

The retail trade-services sector provides 62% and the goods producing sector provides 38% of total wages in the Greater Lincoln economy. Manufacturing, which comprises 15.6% of total employment, provides 21.9% of total wages. How does this fit into your vision of the future greater Lincoln area economy? What assets and liabilities does this chart present?